of the people, and all traceable to this mysterious power, sitting calm and impulsive at Paris.

Thus we hear from the newspapers, some of which advocate it, that there is a strong feeling in Ecuador in favor of a monarchical form of government under a French protectorate.

The President, Moreno, and several of the highest functionaries of the Republic are said to favor it.

In Peru the same feeling is said to be strong. It is reported that the present Chief Magistrate, Gen. Pez, who was in Paris in the winter, was, when elected Chief Magistrate, saluted by the Emperor Napoleon as "Prince Regent." It is certain that he is appointed to the court of Madrid. We have the still further evidence of the Mercurio, published at Valparaiso, that Gen. Pez favors a monarchical form of government, while the Emperor Napoleon is "Prince Regent."

CITY NEWS.

For yesterday's noon dispatches see fourth page.

THE CHICAGO TIMES.—We direct attention to the circular of the Chicago Times for 1864, contained in another column of this paper. The Times, by its enterprise as a newspaper and its boldness as a political journal, has attained a very large, and deserves to attain a still larger, circulation. The suggestions of its circular concerning the circulation of Democratic papers in the Presidential campaign should be adopted.

ANOTHER WORD ABOUT COAL.—The City Council may as well look the subject of the coal famine fully in the face. There is great danger now that the river will close without a good coal-barge. Measures should be taken to secure coal for the poor, at least, at cost. Camelion coal can be towed up to Portland wharf for four or five cents per bushel at the present time, or even a lower stage of water, and it can be procured there at fifteen cents. If it shall cost as much to bring it from Portland to the city as it costs to bring it from Cannington to Portland, it is our own fault. We should manage to get some cheaper mode of communication.

The city could easily secure a towboat for Camelion, and another for Pomeroy and Pittsburgh, and bring coal here at a reasonable rate. The coal dealers do like everybody else—they get as good prices and make as good profits as they can.

The provision should be made for the future. The railroads to the coal regions should be pushed with vigor. A coal company with ample capital should be at once established, and such means used as to secure the city against another coal famine for all time to come.

COLLISION ON THE NASHVILLE RAILROAD.—Yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock a collision occurred on the Nashville railroad, by which four or five persons were badly injured, two of whom are not expected to live. It appears that the train from this place for Bardstown endeavored to make the junction before the up passenger train passed, and when at Gap in the Knob the two trains, under full headway, collided, smashing the locomotives and tenders into splinters, besides damaging the cars. As soon as the news of the collision was received at this place, a special train was immediately dispatched to bring up the passengers who were upon the wrecked trains. This train had not returned up to 12 o'clock last night, and we were unable to gather the full particulars or learn the names of the persons hurt.

The Latest Foreign Intelligence.

(Special to the Louisville Journal.)

From daylight this morning till that time the cannoneers had been furious, and no doubt was entertained there that a heavy battle was being fought.

But the news communication will be established via Aquia creek, so that the army of the Potomac can make that its base of operations if desired.

CAIRO, November 30.

Seven or eight gunboats, collected at different points in Illinois and Missouri, were brought here from below to-day and placed in position on the river, and the gunners, 100 men, and by him transferred, after a brief examination, under guard to General A. J. Smith, at Columbus, to be dealt with by military commission now in session at that place.

The commission is a rough looking set of fellows, and unsparing in their severe punishment for their bloodthirsty acts.

The steamer Commercial brings us Memphis papers and dispatches of the 28th, but they contain nothing of present excitement in the city, though a great and present excitement in Memphis is the strict enforcement of General Sherman's conscription order. Quite an impetus has thus been given to recruiting in Tennessee.

I learn from official quarters that extensive smuggling operations are being carried on in this city, St. Louis and Louisville have been terrorized out and brought to light by government aids, and detectives and many of the guilty parties arrested and made to answer to justice.

There are more than 100 persons thus far arrested in Memphis. Their places of business have been closed and most of the men put in the ranks with muskets on their shoulders.

These little transactions amount in the aggregate to over two hundred thousand dollars.

Some Cairo men are implicated, and are this have been probably arrested. The mode of operation of these smugglers has been to obtain permits at some treasury office for the importation of tobacco, salt, flour, &c., from New Orleans.

These permits are of say $1,000 in value, which are reloaded. They then put up and ship four or five times the amount, thus defrauding the Government and infringing on the late trade regulations.

Some of the most respectable parties have been thus deceived by the Government and trust, and will suffer fully for their gull. The principal arrests have been made within the past ten days, and yet more are to be made.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 1.

Mr. Gen. Foster arrived at Cumberland Gap yesterday, en route for Knoxville.

Nothing later from Burnside.

John Morgan telegraphed to Columbus from Tennessee, yesterday, announcing his arrival there.

The number of men mustered in the service in this State averages four hundred per week.

A dispatch from Chattanooga says sufficient recruits are gathered, and General Granger has been sent Burnside to insure his success.

Bragg's main force is reported beyond Dalton.

Stragglers are still coming in.

Henry Andrews, of the Twelfth Ohio, is seconded to shot on the 8th of January for desertion.

Five hundred Chattanooga prisoners arrived at Louisville last night.

The guerrillas are very troublesome on the Cumberland river—boats are fired into, houses burned, robbed, and property carried off or destroyed.

Senator Sprague arrived at Columbus yesterday.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.

The following news by the steamship City of New York is not covered by the Scott's dispatch:

The Hibernia arrived at Columbus, October 24. She reports having met the Alabama in the Bay of Bengal, when she signified the Hibernia, and immediately on receiving her answering signal, set sail with steam on, success.

The Russian Ambassador at Paris had communicated his reply to Prince Gorchakoff, as to his invitation to the European Congress. It is in substance that Russia will take part therein, but not until the pacification of Potrovsk is in progress as the time the issue heard, which was at 11 o'clock this morning. The whole force is entrenched between Orange and Gordonville.

Supplies have been despatched to Meade by the new route.

The weather is frightfully cold, and has been to since yesterday. The badly wounded, who were left to die last night, have died, and those left out to perish when they fall will meet with a similar fate. They figure without exception.

NEW YORK, December 1.

The Herald has the following:

Rappahannock Station, Nov. 30, 7:30 P. M.—The communication with the army has not been resumed over this route, and will not be.

No wounded men have been brought in from the army, and no hospital can have been sent up from Alexandria.

Yester evening a report was heard this afternoon, but not after wards during the day, in the direction of Chancellorsville. It was heard more distinctly at Beaufort, Warrenton Junction, Knocksville, and Massie, than at any other point, and the report was that no general battle had been fought, and the belief is that general battle had been fought.

An order reported to have been issued by Gen. Meade forbids correspondents from leaving the front or communicating with the rear.

NEW YORK, December 1.

A Tribune special says General Meade has the following:

Washington, Nov. 31.—Army officers from Beaufort Station to night report that heavy cannonading has been heard since this morning in the direction of Orange Courthouse. The firing is strong and continuous as to prevent possibility of distinguishing a regular engagement. It is in progress as the time the issue heard, which was at 11 o'clock this morning. The whole force is entrenched between Orange and Gordonville.

Supplies have been despatched to Meade by the new route.
